Dissemination of information to public through media / news channel / otherwise by the Company's official(s) shall be disseminated after giving due intimation to Stock Exchanges.*

Guidelines for Materiality

I. Qualitative Approach

The event/information is consider material if it satisfy any of the give below condition:

- (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event/information already available publicly; or
- (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date

II. Quantitative Approach

The event/information is material if it is having value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeding the lower of the following:

- (i) 2% of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;

- (ii) 2% of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) 5% of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity.
- III. In case where the criteria specified in (I) and (II) (as covered under above point) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of Board of Directors or any other authorised key managerial person of the Company, the event or information is considered material.

Authority for determination of materiality for other events

The Chairman & Managing Director and /or Group CEO for the time being in consultation with Group CFO, CS and General Counsel of the Company shall determine the materiality of events listed under Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, which shall be considered material and shall be disclosed to Stock Exchange(s) within the prescribed timelines.

Discretion to make disclosures where materiality test is not satisfied

Where the Chairman & Managing Director and /or Group CEO for the time being in consultation with Group CFO, CS and General Counsel of the Company are satisfied that although a particular event does not meet the test of materiality as above, disclosure of information in relation thereto will ensure that investors are better informed with regard to the Company or non-disclosure of such information will distort the market for the Company's securities, such information may be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges under the Listing Regulations.

The Compliance Officer shall have authority to disclose any event that he considers important in furtherance of his responsibilities under the Act or Listing Regulations or Applicable Law, without application of any materiality threshold limits.
